Sub :- Exemption from Institutional quarantine in exceptional cases.

A new Standard Operating Procedure (S.O.P.) is being implemented with regards to compulsory Institutional quarantine for the passengers arriving from U.K., Europe, Middle East and South Africa. As per the policy, all the passengers arriving from these 4 destinations are compulsorily quarantine in the hotel or MCGM quarantine centre.

It has been considered to exempt passengers in exceptional cases for exemption for compulsory institutional quarantine. Passengers may be considered for exemption in following cases :-

- 1) Elderly passengers above 65 years of age needing support.
- 2) Pregnant Woman
- 3) Parents accompanies children below 5 years of age.
- 4) Passengers having serious illness and require medical attention such as cancer, physical disability, mental illness, cerebral palsy.
- 5) Extreme family distress condition i.e. father, mother, son, daughter in critical condition (death bed), severe accident in family, death of immediate family member.

Passengers from above categories may be considered exemption from institutional quarantine subject to providing required documents to the satisfaction of In-charge Officer at the Airport. The exempted passengers shall strictly follow home quarantine rules and regulations and shall be liable for appropriate action for any breach of quarantine rules.
